2017 Community Service Highlights

"Wrapped in Love": Sixty (60) cuddly fleece blankets & 8 Teddy Bears were crafted and donated to the Emergency Family Shelter of Rockland County for children in need and Nyack Hospital for elderly patients. FountainView residents helped.

"Wash Your Troubles Away": NCJW Rockland volunteers purchased, and donated 100's of items of cleaning supplies to the Center for Safety and Change which are supplied to women leaving the shelter for a fresh start. Comfortable clothing for in-coming victims was also donated.

"Busy Bags": Gift bags filled with small toys & grooming items are given to children and teens in crisis.

"Luggage for Freedom": This spring, NCJW Rockland again packed luggage (31 suitcases!) filled with linens and small kitchen wares for victims of abuse who are making a fresh start.

"Tales for Tots": Volunteers read to children in early childhood programs throughout the county and E. Ramapo kindergarten classes as a literacy project in collaboration with Child Care Resources of Rockland. Over 1000 kindergarten books were distributed.

Throughout the year:

- Feeding & Pantry Programs

The National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) is a grassroots organization of volunteers and advocates who turn progressive ideals into action. Inspired by Jewish values, NCJW strives for social justice by improving the quality of life for women, children, and families and by safeguarding individual rights and freedoms.

National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW) Rockland Section begins its 68th year of commitment to making a difference in all the lives it may touch. We are many women, united by our heritage and shared responsibility for future generations.
